INTRODUCTION.

In our previous volume we stated that the first record books of Pawtucket had become lost and so compelled us, very much against our wishes and inclinations, to commence with the series of 1843. A diligent search and inquiry was then unsuccessful. The Clerk of the City kept the matter in mind, and when arranging the public papers in the new vault he came upon the book which is here printed in this volume. The companion volumes have not as yet been discovered. The matter in this volume following Pawtucket is varied and much of it must prove interesting to our readers. There is much here that cannot be found elsewhere, consequently as the years go on must become more and more valuable.

Speaking of the word valuable we realized as soon as the word was written that some hypercritical person would take exception to it. In order therefore to set the mind at rest we admit that what one esteems of value, of worth, and worth preserving, another considers of no value and destroys. Hence we use the word valuable in the strict sense that we consider all records of value that will give dates or even approximation of dates that will aid the Historical or Genealogical scholar in his work. We have always regretted that the Baptist Churches did not pay more attention to this matter in their earlier years and did not preserve better the record that they made. It is very encouraging however to say that these people today, at least the most intelligent of them, take our view of it and have spent time to gather new facts to make the entries more complete. We can safely add that we have met none of the Protestant faiths whose officers in charge of the records but acknowledge that every year adds an increased interest and the churches are demanding that the entries shall be made more exact and careful.

One more move in direction, historical only has been inaugurated by the Baptists—to have one of their churches written up and printed in the Minutes. This, at first, was thought trivial—now it is considered as important as any other portion of the Min-tate. They also have depositaries where these printed Minutes are preserved. Here they are growing more and more valuable every year.

This same plan ought and should be adopted by the other faiths. To show how the plan works we will cite a few examples.

1. In 1847 Wilkins Updike published the Annals of the Narragansett Church (St. Paul). The book was sold for $1.50; now this book is valued at $15 and upwards. No doubt could it be reprinted with suitable notes so as to bring it up to date, at the same time add some detail to what has been written, it could be published successfully.

2. George C. Mason, Esq., took it upon himself to publish the Annals of Trinity Church, Newport. He spared himself no pains. His long residence and acquaintance with the Church People, and his particular profession gave him every requisite for gathering information. The result is his published volumes which must and will ever be considered invaluable by every scholar interested in the history of this Church.

3. Churches at Bristol, Warren, Providence, Westerly and other places have published small volumes or pamphlets, all of which are of historical value more or less. Town and County histories have been printed in which a chapter or Section was given to Church matters. It seems to be considered necessary by a respectable part of those who write our town history to devote a separate section to this subject.

In all these examples we do not remember to have heard a regret that the work had been done, but have heard deep regret it was not made more full and in more detail.

We have in mind now cases where churches have become extinct or relinquished to other localities. These were prosperous in their day and exerted an influence over the community. Could we have such description to which our work is dedicated how valuable it might be to future investigators.

Finally in closing this essay on value we confess the reader or scholar in a measure must set his own value on the information he finds in this volume, and treat it as he would a book or a piece of manufacture. To do this is right in a business point of view. We suppose any to use it for some outside of legitimate business doubtless to do an injury, at the same time bringing no profit to the [illegible].

We [illegible] extend our thanks to the HONORABLE GENERAL

ASSEMBLY for their kindness towards us and to those friends who have interested themselves in our favor. We regret the peculiar condition of business at this time which has very seriously affected our work and plans. We are in hopes the present conditions will not long continue, and by the time another volume is issued a happier condition of affairs will have dawned.

Mr. R. H. Tilley, the State Record Commissioner, in his researches informs me he can place in our hands much new matter in our line, and that it will be a pleasure for him to do so. It is always pleasant to have men in such pursuits of life as Mr. Tilley in touch with us. No true scholar will show a narrow spirit or will try to "corner the market" to use a street term. When we meet men that show the liberal whole souled spirit of true scholarship the reader has no conception how much good it does us and what a new spirit of strength it infuses. We have always worked on the principle that if we expect favors, to grant them. Hence we have always prided ourself on our liberality in opening our manuscripts and library to such as wish certain facts without inconvenience to ourself. Every way that it has been possible for us to encourage historical pursuit and investigation has been seized upon and every occasion that has been offered has not been allowed to pass unheeded.

It has always been a keen source of annoyance to be burdened with such slender means financially as we have been so far in our work. Could fate place within our control means to make our studies pleasanter it would certainly be very, very thankfully received and appreciated. If such a fortune should ever become ours we think with our long study and application to our peculiar field of investigation that we could show commendable work for the favor received.

In looking over our pages we find that Mrs. Ruth A. Arnold, the Clerk of the Narragansett Church of South Kingstown, has not been credited with the notes she furnished us, and therefore we give her here the credit for the same.

We here extend our thanks to those friends who have favored us in the past and trust they will continue their very much esteemed favors in the future.

As will be seen by a perusal of our pages no pains have been spared in order to avoid all ambiguity. The prime object of the compiler was to so arrange the matter in these pages that no one need be a professional reader to thoroughly understand it, hence the simplicity of the work. Again, the spelling of many names [illegible] as [illegible] were others had to be so changed as to come within a reasonable index and not to lose their original identity.

We close with our usual admonition. That the reader may be profited, instructed and rewarded for his labor and time while perusing our pages, is the earnest and sincere wish of the compiler.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

We give here the names of the Members of the General Assembly since May 1889, when our first appropriation for the publishment of the VITAL RECORD OF RHODE ISLAND was voted, and including the present members.

The unanimity controlling the voting of this appropriation has always been a source of deep satisfaction to us, and has given a renewed energy to pursue the work which few care to do themselves, but which many appreciate the value of when once accomplished.

Another source of satisfaction to us has been the fact that the work has received more testimonials and more flattering ones than any other Rhode Island Publication. Not one adverse opinion has yet been printed that has come to our knowledge. The fact that the General Government at Washington has seven sets upon the shelves of their various Record Offices speaks well in its favor. The State of Rhode Island has been the first to publish such a list as contained in these volumes. In this field (Genealogical) an example has been set for others to follow. Since our work has been publishing compilers in other States (of Town matter) have followed our general plan, thus adding a testimony in our favor by adopting our plan which we truly appreciate.

Pawtucket.

NOTE. — When we published in Vol. IX of this work the Vital Record of Pawtucket, we were forced to begin with the Record Book commencing with 1843. The Record from the commencement of the town in 1828 to this date, 1843, we were not able to find and, although a diligent search was had, it proved fruitless until our work had gone to press. The City Clerk interested himself in the matter and in arranging the old books and papers in the new vault he found the book from which the following data was taken, which we now submit as a supplement to the record of Pawtucket as published in volume IX of this work.

First Sabbatarian Church of Hopkinton.

To 1785.

NOTE—This is one of the most interesting churches in the state and this list was carefully prepared by one who carefully examined the original books. It is the immediate successor of the First Sabbatarian Church of Newport. The Seventh Day Memorial will give the reader an exhaustive history of the church, to which he is referred for full and further particulars.

The dates are from the revised list of members at the time given. For example George Babcock is given as an original member; that is he was on the charter list or the list that in those days formed the church. He appears next on the list of 5d 9m 1712; he appears in the revised list of 1718 and again in 1740. Some names are given as before 1750; that means they were members before that date. Others appear definitely as Nov., 1769: this is the date of admission. The Baptists are not very definite in their records in all the early churches, which is a matter of regret to us as the records could give us valuable data had they paid attention to this matter.

Maple Root Church of Coventry.

Note.—This church was organized Oct. 14, 1762 with 25 members. In 1763 they chose Thomas Green for their pastor and William Kinsley their Deacon. They were both ordained Sept. 1, 1763. Father Green removed to the west 1770 and died about 1780, and Father Reuben Hopkins, Pastor of the Second Church, served as their Pastor. Thomas Whitney was ordained Deacon June 2?, 1776 and died Jan. 23, 1789. Sept. 12, 1782, Thomas Manchester was ordained Pastor of the Church. He died Sept. 18?4. The church at the time 1782 consisted of about 75 members. Gray, Church Clerk, Oct., 1859, which Church is now under the pastoral care of Pardon Tillinghast, Elder. [illegible] printed out below also contains names of a later date.

Mr. Charles W. Hopkins of Providence, prepared, from the Church Records, a list of the members of this Church, [illegible] in the "Pawtuxet Valley Gleaner" in the summer and autumn of 1889. Knowing the careful and painstaking methods of Mr. Hopkins, the compiler of the following copy has no hesitation in following his names, [illegible] chronologically, [illegible] to the [illegible]

West Greenwich and Exeter Union Church.

PEWHOLDERS AND SUBSCRIBERS.

NOTE.—The Association of Baptists built a house in 1810. It never had a church organization and the house was used for worship by members of all the neighboring churches. The society dissolved business in 1826. Dr. Stephen Allen, who also preached, was the guiding genius of the enterprise. The following list of names shows the names of the pewholders and in many cases the sum paid for the pews.

The Six Principle Baptist Church of North Kingstown.

NOTE.—The history of this church, according to Elder Richard Knight's history of the Baptists, dates with Roger Williams, and it was first a small gathering of Baptists of this order since [illegible]. The meetings were held in the vicinity and the pastorate extended to the death of the last. The last pastor, Elder John Slocum, filled the pastorate about 60 years.

It would have been very interesting to have preserved a list of the members of a church carrying so long a period of existence, but the following is all we were able to procure and here submit it in all its meagreness.

St. Paul's Church, Narragansett, 1718-1875.

MARRIAGES.

St. Paul's Church, Narragansett, is numbered two among the churches of the diocese. There have been claims made that it was the oldest, although Trinity of Newport is numbered one. The territory once covered was very large as appears from the early entries on the church Register.

Wilkins Updike published in 1847 a History of the Church. In strictness it is really a series of notes based upon certain data from the Register. To this work the reader is referred for further information.

Mrs. Harriet Vaughan Gregory had the kindness to carefully read and copy from the first Register of the Church the data we have here used up to the year 1790. From this year we were permitted by the Clerk and Rector to continue to the end of the Rectorship of Rev. James Goodwin in May 1875. St. Paul has had an eventful history and has stamped its influence upon the community. Its church building at Wickford is of a very tasteful design. The old Church in the village is kept in good repair, although not used. It is a beautiful lesson of reverence for others to follow. It speaks well of a community to show a respect to that edifice where their ancestors sat and worshipped in days gone by.

The Baptist Church in Exeter.

The Baptist Church in Exeter.

This Church was founded by Elder David Spragne of Hingham, Mass., in 1750. Its articles of faith were adopted as early as Aug. 22, 175[illegible]. Simon Smith gave a deed Feb. 12, 1763, of a piece of land to be used for Church and Cemetery purposes. The Church had several set backs in the first 10 years of its history. In July 1766 a reorganization was effected under Elder Solomon Spragne, son of Elder David, who remained pastor until his death, Feb. 25, 1794. April 5, 1806, Elder Gersham Palmer was ordained pastor. This pastorate was historic from two causes, one by the remarkable revivals under the pastorate of Elder Palmer, and the other the remarkable trial of the Elder for the crime of "fornicating" to use an old term. This trial divided the church and created a feeling in the [illegible] in the other direction. The Church since has [illegible] of Country Churches, strictly farming communities.

In 1884 Deacon Wescott H. [illegible] wrote a paper and a historic sketch which was published in the Baptist Manuals, in the Nineteenth Historical Register for [illegible], and also in pamphlet form, to which the reader is referred for further [illegible] of this Church.

TRINITY CHURCH,
NEWPORT.

Trinity Church Newport.

Trinity Church Newport! What a wealth of historical influences and associations cluster round the name. A church that boasts of its two hundredth anniversary this present year. A church that can point to a line of worshippers from the time of the early pioneers.

The first footing of the Church of England in New England was gained May 30, 1686 at Boston, where the Rev. Robert Radcliffe, who came over in a ship that brought a commission for Joseph Dudley as Governor of Massachusetts and landed in Boston May 15, 1686, read the liturgy the 30th as above stated. He made application for a place to hold public worship and was allowed the library room in the Town House. There he held the first service June 15 the following month and organized the first church.

Rhode Island was more backward. The first settlers were Baptists divided into various faiths. When the Friends came they met with great success, for here no persecutions were made for the crime of thinking and speaking as the ability, knowledge and conscience of the individual dictated. Free thought was encouraged in religious matters as well as in political, scientific and literary fields. Hence the door was open for the Church of England faith as it had been open before for the Friends and Congregationalists.

Sept. 26, 1699, a petition was addressed to the Earl of Bedemont signed by 16 persons requesting a Minister be sent them. This petition was forwarded by the Earl to the Board of Trade Oct. 24 and read before them the 5th of January following. The Earl in forwarding the petition says:

"I send your Lordships the petition of several persons in Rhode Island for a Church of England Minister and a yearly maintainance for him. I hope your Lordships will please patronize so good a design and will obtain his Majesty's allowance of a competent maintainance for such a minister. It will be the means I hope to reform the lives of the people of that Island and make good Christians of 'em who are at present all in darkness."

The outgrowth of the matter was that the Venerable Society for the propogation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts in 1701 sent James Honey[illegible] as Minister in Rhode Island and continued to be the Minister until his death, July 2, 1790.

The Church was very fortunate in having so able a man for its first settled Pastor, as it was fortunate in having his able counsels for such a foreparent. The Doctor was fortunate in his administration and happy in seeing his charge grow from a small beginning into a powerful and influential society. It must be conceded that this Society has exerted a powerful influence for lasting good in this city. Many of its members have been scholars and familiar with the best literature of the day. They were the first to suggest a Public Library and first to encourage the study of history and science. It speaks well and in our opinion (if a layman may be pardoned for expressing one) no higher tribute can be erected to the memory of these sainted names than the one they have themselves erected by establishing the Public Library, the Classic School, and Reading of the English and modern classics, not neglecting the Latin and Grecian models. When these men built on these lines they built strong and on rock bottom. The Bible in our opinion is of no worth and cannot be for any lasting good to any people unless the mind be prepared to receive it. In other words the open Bible must have a mind educated to read and understand it or else its teachings can have no effect. This is the secret power of Protestantism and what has made the Protestant Powers of Europe what they are today, i. e. the [illegible] to understand. Contrast these powers with those of Southern Europe under another system, and estimate how much the open Bible has done for these people of the rank and file. All this said, this question, not yet to ground, has yet to be prepared to receive the seed. It is true that our Government, planted, nourished, protected and [illegible] this system of proportion, has blossomed into the power that it has and wields the intellectual strength of today. Our [illegible] a wonder to the world, and the fact that our Public Libraries of today contain more volumes than all the rest of the world put together is something to be proud of. Let me pay then this tribute to the memory of the early Pioneers of this church, that they in their humble but praiseworthy beginning made it possible in a great degree that our students of [illegible] have access to read and study, and to [illegible] the [illegible] suggestions to [illegible] and fresh inspiration from these inspired minds.

It has been a happy inspiration to note these grand and noble [illegible] to the memory of men, and speaks well for a community that [illegible] it. It is also a source of congratulation to record the fact that this Church has been very fortunate in having a historian who spared [illegible] to other to secure facts and to write the annals from [illegible] to 1892.

George Champlain Mason in leaving this published History to posterity has erected to his own memory a worthy memorial. The reader who is curious to learn the history of this Church can find in the volumes of Mr. Mason much of interest and much of instruction. He has followed the official record and has made plain to his reader the spirit and interest of the lines quoted. Very wisely he has devoted a large space to the historic first pastorate, in many instances going into detail. Again he very wisely incorporated facts regarding the original members that will be valued by the genealogical reader. Besides Mr. Mason's Annals there are several sketches in works written of Newport and numerous pictures of the Church Building. The picture of Dr. Honeyman graces the first volume, and this picture has been produced also in other publications so that the face of the venerable teacher is familiar to the general reader living in Newport or vicinity.

The copy of records which is printed in this volume was made by the late Dr. Henry E. Turner. We print the record as made by the Doctor, and will, if spared, and no unforeseen event prevents, continue these records in another volume. We will say here that the Doctor's system was strictly chronological under each letter. Our system is first alphabetical with the family name, and second chronological with the matter presented. It will be seen therefore by the reader when we reach the name of Arnold, Brenton, Clarke, Cranston, Davis, Easton, and so down the list that the earliest or first entry stands first, and the name is not dropped until every entry down the list in the record is given. Then follows the next name under the letter next below the one cited above treated the same. This is our system. The Doctor's was, if Ayres was the first name in A he would use it first, and if a dozen other names were sandwiched chronologically in between this, then the various entries in Ayres would have as many different places, hence the reader has to glance through the whole letter from beginning to end.

We beg to say we have not changed anything from the Doctor's record save its arrangement. We would be pleased to publish the record as the Doctor wrote, but the fact that it would confuse the reader to make such a change in our work where each family name is grouped, is our reason and object of the change indicated.

The following is the first entry of the Record Book

"During the winter and spring of 1850 it pleased God to pour out His Spirit in the neighborhood of South Ferry. There were a number of conversions, and, after consultation and prayer it was deemed advisable to form a Church, to be known as the NARRAGANSETT BAPTIST CHURCH OF SOUTH KINGSTOWN.

"On the Lord's day, the 28th of July 1850,

Robert Dennis,	Joseph Eaton,
John Pratt,	Edward Oatley,

David Nason,	Sarah Freeborn,
Mr. Lord,
